The Hermès Birkin and Chanel 2.55 will always be in style but a new crop of arm candy gives them a run for their money

Capucines MM in pebbled leather, $5,150, Louis Vuitton, louisvuitton.com

Jourdan 2 top-handle tote bag, $1,895, Jason Wu, jasonwustudio.com

Large Borough bag in polished calfskin, $898, Coach, coach.com

STELLA MCCARTNEY BECKETT What do Gwen Stefani (above), Anne Hathaway, Miranda Kerr and Salma Hayek have in common? A love of Stella McCartney's line of minimalist Beckett bags.

CHANEL BOY Almost three years after Chanel launched its Boy handbag line in 2011, stars like Dakota Fanning (above) and Emma Watson can't get enough of the seasonally updated box style.

DIOR BAR Channelling the elegance of Dior's legendary "Bar" suit jacket, the new Raf Simons-designed Bar bag is a hit with stars like Charlize Theron (above), Nicole Kidman and Jennifer Lawrence.

LOUIS VUITTON CAPUCINES Unless your name is Angelina Jolie or Princess Charlene (above), you'll have to put your name on a waiting list for the new Louis Vuitton, which launched last June.

JASON WU JOURDAN Named for Victoria's Secret angel Jourdan Dunn, the structured tote is a favourite of Gwyneth Paltrow (above), who has been snapped carrying the bag numerous times.

COACH BOROUGH The list of Tinseltown trendsetters that count the roomy Borough bag as their go-to include Jessica Alba (above), Drew Barrymore, Freida Pinto and Sarah Jessica Parker.
